Birthday Party

On Saturday evening, February 1, a large number of friends gathered in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Drinkard to celebrate the twenty first birthday of Miss Gladys Coleman. The dining room was attractively decorated with pink and white paper and candles. The colors were also carried out in the refreshments. After the serving of refreshments, the presents were opened. She received many nice and useful gifts. Then all joined in playing old time games. The evening seemed to have been enjoyed by all.

STATE POLITICS

State Politics: Round 'N Round; Forum at the college this year. Besides excelling in scholarship, he is active in extra curricular activities on the campus. He is a member of the Union Philanthropic Literary Society, and is taking part in journalistic activities for the campus. LOCAL HAPPENINGS

A.M. Alexander, who directed a circulation campaign for this paper in 1931, was here today.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Roland Smith, a baby boy, January 30.

Mrs. Ida Beale, of Lynchburg, was here Saturday.

H.Y. Spencer was in town last week.

R.W. Wilkins, of Danville, spent the week end here.

The town council met Monday night.

John Cole is in Blacksburg taking a course in dairying.

Sam Conner has returned to Washington after visiting here.

Duval Connor and O. G. Burnett were in Washington this week attending a game meeting.

Scott Sears was home for the week end from Hampton Sydney.

Fair Weather Ahead

Sunday was "Ground Hog" day. The theory is that if this little animal peers forth from his winter lair to behold his shadow, he straightway scampers back to dig in for forty days of bad weather.

If Brer Ground Hog looked out Sunday, all he saw was snow and ice, not any part of a shadow.

This only time we'd like to be superstitious and be all set for fair and warmer weather.

Evergreen

Evergreen, Feb. 5— Jesse Chocklett, of Brookneal visited his parents here Friday.

—o—

Daniel Jennings, of W. Va., was here over the week end.

Scott Sears Is Honored At School

Scott Sears, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Sears, of Appomattox, was named to the Hampton Sydney College honor roll for the session ending January 31. He is a freshman at the college this year. Besides excelling in scholarship, he is active in extra curricular activities on the campus. He is a member of the Union Philanthropic Literary Society, and is taking part in journalistic activities for the campus. He was the winner of a literary contest recently sponsored by the campus newspaper.

School News

The Lee Literary Society debated a most interesting subject last week. The subject was: "Resolved, that Hauptmann should be electrocuted." The society was deeply interested and the debators gave some thoughtful points. The debators for the affirmative were Adelle Thomas and Rachel Harvey. Those upholding the negative side were: Mary Davidson and Ellisabeth LeGrand. The judges were in favor of the negative.

The oration and readings were enjoyed by all.

We are glad to have the report of the improvement of Miss Butts' mother, who recently underwent an operation.

Miss Elizabeth Drinkard, of Greensboro, N.C. and Louise McCormick of Lynchburg, both graduates of '34, were recent visitors at the school.

Miss Jane Abbitt has been called home on account of the illness of her father.

Sam Connor, of Washington D. C. was a visitor here Tuesday.

The school busses have been late due to the condition of the roads.

Mrs. Higginbotham and Miss Virginia Chick have accepted positions in the library.

The French class gave a party during class period last Thursday in honor of Mrs. Welche' birthday. Refreshments were served by the girls in the class.

Two Local Boys Hurt In Wreck

James Conner, son of Mr. and Mrs. T.U. Conner, of Appomattox suffered a broken neck and back and painful flesh wounds last Friday night; and Earl Morris, son of Mr. and Mrs. R.W. Morris, also of Appomattox, received painful and serious injuries, when a car in which they were riding, driven by John Abbitt, of Newport News, was wrecked just outside of Lynchburg on the old Amherst road.

Young Abbitt escaped unhurt, as the car left the highway and turned over several times. The first two were rushed to the Lynchburg hospital. Little hope was held for James CoConnor at first, but he has rallied since, and remains in a very critical condition. Earl Morris is much better.

Parsonage Burns

The Baptist parsonage at Evergreen was destroyed by fire late Tuesday night of this week.

The dwelling had been unoccupied for some time. Fires had been built that day, as the pastor, the Rev. R. T. Smith prepared to move in. It is therefore thought that the fire started from hot flues.

Court Record of Tuesday

At trial justice court here Wednesday the following cases were heard:

Lewis Smith, colored, was given 60 days in jail and $100 fine for driving while intoxicated.

Robert Ferguson, colored, was charged with assault and abusive language and given 30 days in jail and $5 fine.

Leonard Ferguson, colored, was charged with housebreaking and larceny, and was acquited.

Shower For Bride

The miscellaneous bridal shower given Mrs. Jim Inge at the home of J. R. Hamilton Friday night was well attended. There were more than a hundred guests present. Many beautiful and useful gifts were received by the bride. Everything from a set of real china, many pieces of silver, table linens, bed linens, kitchen utinsels and household articles. Refreshments were served at nine o'clock. The color scheme of pink and white was carried out in the desserts.

The out of town guests attending were: Mrs. O. F. Farrar, of Blackstone; Mrs. S. W. Farrar, of Petersburg; Mrs. Hector Cawthorn and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Cawthorn, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hamilton; Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Burke, and Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Inge.

Drive carefully. We don't want to publish YOUR death notice yet.

Recommend Plan to Leaf Growers Here

According to the outlook today, the dark fired tobacco markets will not reopen from the current holiday until February 24. Progress is being made in plans for independent warehouses to secure a half million advance from the FFC to peg prices at four fifths of grade averages for last year.

An important meeting was held here today at the office of the county agent to discuss the agricultural situation.

This meeting was attended by J.G. Bruce, A.W. Cook, R.B. Hudgins, Robert Ellis, Crarles Ellis Professor Gills, C.W. Potts, B.G. Anderson and Mr Farrar.

The following recommendations have been made to local farmers by the Flue Cured Tobacco Committee:

1, That all production credit agencies, including warehousement, fertilizer dealers and governmental sources exercise caution in extending credit for tobacco production this year.

2, That the growers reduce their individual plantings in 1936 by 30 per cent below base under the 1936 contract.

3, That all growers attend the discussion meetings not being held in various parts of the county.
